Chapter 1 Reading Question
Name:_________________________________
What are the three reasons to write about your research findings other than that you have been assigned a project according to Booth et al. and why are they important?

Chapter 2 Reading Question
What are the three roles that you might create for the reader as discussed by Booth et al. and why is it important to create those roles?