

GEOG 4800 – Capstone is the synthesizing course in the geography curriculum designed for seniors. The majority of the course will focus on developing and writing a research proposal (prospectus); however, the skills involved in this endeavor are transferable to any career path. As such, this course can be seen as a professional development class.