

GEOL 3000 – Geology of Texas covers rocks, minerals, fossils, and the geologic history of Texas. The course combines lectures on the stratigraphic sequence, structural geology, and mineral resources of the state with field trips and geological mapping exercises.