GEOG 4920 Internship Application Supervisor Form Department of Geography and the Environment University of North Texas

Students can receive credit for internships if the employment builds up on skills developed in courses and provides career-related workplace experiences.

riefly describe the nature of the internship. A copy of the job description will be submitted by the student. lease elaborate on the tasks and projects that the student may be working on, as well as professional evelopment opportunities they will have access to.
he student intern will submit a final report documenting what they learned during the internship that will be valuated by faculty for the course grade. Students have flexibility in the type of report format (e.g., e-portfolio, rcGIS story map, Word/pdf document). If there is information that should not be made publicly available, pleas iscuss this with the student.	• upervisor's signature: Date:
mail:
hone:	